Class Library Books

If your student has a library book checked out from our class library or YCES library that has been out for longer than a week or two, please have them return it to school tomorrow. I will be checking our class library check-out tomorrow morning. If your student would like to re-check a book out so that they can keep it over break, they may do so.

Winter Bingo

A Winter Bingo sheet was sent home today in take home folders. The Bingo sheet is optional homework for over the break. Students that return it after winter break with a blackout will get a prize.
